The Chilliwack Players Guild presents

Postmortem

The time is 1922 and the actor William Gillette, famous for portraying Sherlock Holmes, has invited the cast of his latest play for a weekend retreat. The same group who were present a year prior when another guest allegedly committed suicide. Now amidst accusations of jealousy, revenge and even murder, someone is trying to kill their host and keep him from learning the truth. The intrepid, eccentric Gillette plans to solve the case himself, a la his hero Sherlock Holmes, setting the scene for his greatest, and perhaps final, role.

The Chilliwack Music Academy presents

Nordic Reflections

Join the Chilliwack Festival Chorus on a journey in latitude and through past favourites. This double helix of entertainment explores the fascinating but rarely-heard folkmusic of the Scandinavian countries, then brings it all back home with a retrospective of some of the best performances from past Festival Chorus concerts. This year marks the Chorus' 15th year under the direction of Paula Quick, so we invite the whole community to join the celebration by taking in this wonderful choral concert.

Rock.It Boy Entertainment presents

Buddy Holly

A Tribute by Johnny Vallis

A young Johnny Vallis imitated his teacher one day and was sent to the principal's office. "Why are you here", asked the principal? Johnny showed him. The principal said, "That's really good". Johnny Vallis, the man of many voices, has been imitating people ever since. Johnny made a name for himself with a particular voice.

BUDDY HOLLY was "the single most influential creative force in early Rock n' Roll". In his tribute to the Rock icon, Johnny Vallis perfectly portrays both the look and the sound as he rolls out Buddy's greatest hits; That'll Be The Day, Words of Love, Not Fade Away, Oh Boy, Peggy Sue, Maybe Baby, "Rave On!, "Heartbeat and more!

Theatre Junkies Anonymous Fine Arts presents

Treasure Island

By Robert Louis Stevenson

Adapted by Gabby Bohmer & Megan Mackenzie

Based on the masterful adventure by Robert Louis Stevenson, Treasure Island is a grand tale of piracy on the high seas. Beginning at the quaint Admiral Benbow Inn, this tale quickly becomes an unforgettable story of treachery and mayhem featuring a group of legendary swashbucklers including the dangerous Captain Billy Bones, the sinister and two-timing Israel Hands and the ever entertaining Gunn. At the centre of this adventure are Jim Hawkins, a young boy who longs for adventure, and the infamous Long John Silver, a complex soul and one of the most famous hero-villains of all time. Silver, a buccaneer-rogue whose greedy quest for gold, coupled with his friendship for Jim, can't help but win the hearts of every person who has ever longed for treasure and adventure.
