DISCOVERY CONCERT: AN EVENING WITH THE MASTERS

Jennifer Lim started to play the piano before the age of five and she made her first public appearance one year later. She came into attention when she captured the Grand Prize at the Korean Times National Music Competition at age 8. In 1993 she was a top prize winner at the Canadian Music Competition in Montreal as well as the winner of Johanna Hodges International Piano Competition in California. In 1994, she was accepted to study at the Curtis Institute of Music on full scholarship with Peter Serkin as his only student. Upon graduation in 1998 she was awarded the Rachmaninoff/Festorazzi Prize. She completed her Master's degree at the Julliard School of Music in New York in 2000 as a protegee of the legendary Bella Davidovich. Ms. Lim also studied privately as a teenager with Anton Kuerti and Jane Coop.

CRIS DERKSEN

A rising star on the Canadian world, classical, folk, and electronica scenes, award-winning Aboriginal cellist Cris Derksen is known for building layers of sound into captivating performances. Her music braids the traditional and contemporary in multiple dimensions, weaving her traditional classical training and her aboriginal ancestry with new school electronics, creating genre defying music. Armed with a loop pedal and a drum machine, Cris is able to take her cello to new levels, becoming a one-woman-band who is equally at home making atmospheric music to chill to or filling a dance floor. Her critically acclaimed debut solo album, "The Cusp" (2010), won the 2011 Canadian Aboriginal Music Award for Instrumental Album of the Year, and was nominated for a Western Canadian Music Award, and an Aboriginal People's Choice Award. Since the release of "The Cusp", Cris has been on an upward trajectory, her National profile is rising as she becomes a fixture on the Canadian Folk Festival Circuit.

The Chilliwack Arts and Cultural Centre Society presents

TIL DEATH DO WE PART

It all starts in the afterlife, in a bizarre waiting room of sorts. One by one, the wives of Henry VIII arrive, much to the shock and dismay of each previous wife. What culminates is the heated frenzy of an ex-wives club where these women swap stories, toss Anne Boleyn's head around, pick on the ugly German one, and, most importantly, fight for the right to be acknowledged as Henry's true bride and eternal partner. But when Henry arrives, everything changes.

Adult material and situations – may not be appropriate for all audiences.

Chilliwack Art Gallery

The Chilliwack Visual Artists Association presents

PLANES AND CHARACTERS

Pierre Tremblay and Sandra Wiens both enjoy working with the physicality of paint but with different outcomes. Pierre Tremblay has focused on playing with the conventions of portraiture. Playful extremes in both colours and composition play an important role in how his subjects materialise. Sandra Wiens has been working on depicting non-specific landscape spaces that explore the notion of both incremental and forceful change.
