The Chilliwack Players Guild presents

NOISES OFF!

Produced with permission of Samuel French

Written by Michael Frayn

The Chilliwack Players Guild starts off their 2010/2011 season with playwright Michael Frayn’s comedy Noises Off, a three-act play-within-a-play that follows the on-stage and backstage antics of a doomed acting troupe as it performs a bungled bedroom farce called Nothing On. Noises Off is billed as one of the funniest plays of the 20th Century. Confusion reigns as a hapless acting troupe proves that whatever can go wrong—on stage or off—will. What could be better than an evening of slamming doors, sexual dalliances and errant plates of sardines?

7:30 PM Wednesday, November 3 – Saturday, November 6, 2010

Theatre Performance – Main Theatre

Tickets: $20 - Adult $15 - Student/Senior

NOTICE: All ticket holders for Friday, October 29, please contact the Centre Box Office (604.391.SHOW) to secure a replacement ticket for Noises Off, The Drowsy Chaperone, or Sabrina Fair.
