Shantero Productions presents

Steve Patterson – This is Not Debatable!

Best Male Stand-up Comedian, Canadian Comedy Awards 2013!!! Perhaps most recognized as host of CBC Radio's "The Debaters", it is as an international headline stand-up comedian where Steve Patterson truly shines. His hallmark gift for capturing a funny turn of phrase and reputation for rendering his audience helpless with laughter, has taken Patterson to stages around the world, but also to perform regularly at Just For Laughs as a feature guest at their prestigious televised festival galas. Patterson's 2010 performance prompted the legendary comedy icon and gala host, Steve Martin, to quip: "If I'd known he was going to be THAT good, I would have cancelled him."

Tractorgrease Multi Media & 89.5 The Drive presents

Tractorgrease Concert Series

Local talent takes to the stage once more for the second concert in our brand new Tractorgrease Concert Series on November 8th! Local radio station 89.5 The Drive, multi-media production company Tractorgrease and the Chilliwack Arts & Cultural Centre Society have teamed up to bring the community exciting new concerts at 8:30pm in the Rotary Hall Studio Theatre throughout the year.

First up this time are the sisters Holly & Dani Cherniwchan, both students at Sardis Secondary. The girls have been performing since they were little singing and playing guitar and Dani performed last February in the finals of Variety's Got Talent at the River Rock Casino. At present she is working with her sister to record a duet Holly wrote through the Spider Lodge Studios. Holly has also written many original songs and is currently working on a demo CD that will include 12 of these.

Next up is The Shleptones who describe themselves as PUNK FUNK. in your face, followed by Poison Corn, a local band from Chilliwack with a wide variety of sound, ranging from Emotional power ballads to speaking the truth with in your face Punk Rock Music. Energetic indie-rock band Empty After, based in Chilliwack, completes the night with musical influences from the likes of Metric, Evanescence, and Band of Skulls. This dedicated group is raring to spread their songs far and wide, and with their authentic, focused sound, these three musicians are sure to catch your attention.

Their workshops are designed to be fun and instructive aimed towards both non-actors and most professional theatre artists. Signing up for the workshop also includes a ticket to the show on November 16. Visit the Cultural Centre's website for more details.

The Chilliwack Arts & Cultural Centre Society presents

20,000 Leagues Under the Sea

A Tears of Joy Theatre production. Two very enthusiastic Jules Verne fans tell the story of 20,000 Leagues Under the Sea like it's never been told before. This is a fun, rollicking, family-friendly adaptation of the classic science fiction story. In this production, some of the most exciting scenes from the book are presented, aboard the Nautilus and under the sea, combining humor with the science and technology imagined by Verne, much of it predicted with astonishing accuracy. 20,000 Leagues Under the Sea is appropriate for all ages, children and adults alike.
