Chilliwack Players Guild presents,

THE DEATH OF ME / CALIBAN: HOUSE SITTER

In The Death of Me, nice guy John finds himself in front of the Angel of Death after suffering a fatal aneurysm alone in his apartment. Hijinks ensure when the Angel grudgingly allows John to re-live the last 12 hours before his death – on the condition that he tells his ex-fiancé, Cassie, how he really feels about her leaving him at the altar.

Caliban: House Sitter is the story of actor Andrew, who offers to look after a friend's lakeside home for the weekend, expecting nothing more exciting than a few days rest and relaxation. A visit from Claire, his friend's attractive neighbour, changes all that. Love, sex, fear, and Shakespeare duke it out in this fascinating conflict of archetypes. Warning – Contains some strong language.

This will be the first of the Chilliwack Player's Guild's Fraser Valley Zone Festival, in which six groups from around the Fraser Valley will present shows at the Cultural Centre. With comedies, dramas, and everything in-between, the festival will be an exciting and eclectic week of theatre.

Stage 43 present

SEDUCED BY MOONLIGHT

Claire Harrison and Clive Doucet's Search by Moonlight tells the tale of a middle aged couple who spent their entire marriage penning dime store romance novels, and who now find themselves at a crossroad. So, what else can they do but sequester themselves away in a rusty cabin in the woods and try and rekindle both their pens and their passion? Just as it appears that their paths are leading them in different directions, their own stock characters, renamed in novel after nobel, now present themselves, secretly un-plotting the plot. What is real? Who is writing who?... Or is that whom? Come enjoy this hilarious romantic comedy that combines a winter chill and a bit of saucy spring warmth.

Warning: This play contains adult themes, and may not be suitable for children.
