No Tweed Too Tight

Fast! Thrilling! Hilariously Offensive!

Tweed..? Check. Questionable facial hair..? Check. Inexplicable drunken blackouts and Kung Fu moves..? Check and check! It's No Tweed Too Tight, brought to Chilliwack by the incredible Monster Theatre, whose dynamic explosion onto the Canadian fringe scene is embodied by the similarly explosive Grant Canyon, the alcoholic, one-liner dropping 70s investigator out to break hearts and split sides. From Des Moines, to Brazil, to outer space, Canyon is a well-oiled mystery-solving machine intent on finding out just what exactly going on... right after he's figured out what the hell happened last night. You'll be in stitches as the ridiculous exploits of Grant Canyon unravel before your eyes, with the daredevil detective armed with nothing but a trusty tweed suit and a bit of luck. It's fast, it's thrilling - it's No Tweed Too Tight!

No Tweed Too Tight is generously sponsored by: Bathe Plumbing, Convergys, Dr. Yeng Chang, Unger Window and Door, Prime Signs, The Chilliwack Progress, Province of British Columbia, British Columbia Arts Council, The Department of Canadian Heritage

Sarah Hagen with Nicolò Eugelmi

Astounding prowess meets dazzling delivery.

Prepare to be captivated with our Classical Music Series! The lovely and talented Sarah Hagen returns as the host of this series of morning concerts, presenting classical compositions and fantastic musical guests in a series of duets over the course of the year. With complimentary freshly brewed coffee, tea, and sumptuous baked treats, there could be no better way to begin your weekend than with these spectacular concerts. This installment will feature Sarah in duet with violist Nicolò Eugelmi, a musician described as ‘perfect of style, intonation and sonority’ by La Presse Montreal. Teasing striking, soul-soothing lines from his instrument to audiences across the world, Nicolò has built a reputation as globally acclaimed violist, and his incredible musical prowess will invigorate this concert with inspirational energy and dynamism.

Sarah Hagen and Nicolò Eugelmi is generously sponsored by The Royal Hotel, The Chilliwack Progress, British Columbia Arts Council, Department of Canadian Heritage, City of Chilliwack, Province of British Columbia.

The Comic Strippers

No Full Nudity... Just Full Hilarity!

The Comic Strippers are back – and they’re just as ‘sexy’ as ever! This fictitious male stripper troupe, brought to stage by a cast of some of Canada’s best improvisational comedians, offer a night with unparalleled seduction, charm, and... beer guts. These guys try to act sexy, it just comes out a little funny, with improv gags, audience participation, and an array of the most outrageous scenarios transforming the show into the most unique and ridiculous performance featuring five topless men you’ll ever see! The Comic Strippers have become a favourite at The Centre, and returning return for the third outing to Chilliwack, these fantastic comedians will once again have you in stitches in a show that offers no full nudity – just full hilarity!

Adult Material and Situations: May Not Be Appropriate for All Audiences

The Comic Strippers is generously sponsored by The Chilliwack Progress, Province of British Columbia, British Columbia Arts Council, Department of Canadian Heritage.

Nature Re-Imagined: Form and Place

Maggie Manning, Paul McCarl and Mary-Lee Merz re-imagine the natural world through sculpture, painting and printmaking.

For Maggie Manning, painting provides a vehicle to explore the movement, composition, balance and light in the living landscape; with each new investigation another secret is revealed. Perhaps, through the act of painting, it is the artist who is re-imagined” by receiving these gifts. Paul McCarl’s creative inspiration is directly related to his experience of the outdoors. Exploring the environment he finds boulders that excite his imagination. The inner heart of the stone is “re-imagined “ as Paul carves and sculpts the stone to reveal images of the West Coast Wildlife.

The observation of movement and patterns in nature informs the watercolours and print making of Mary-Lee Merz. Using this information she explores possibilities, which result in natural forms being “re-imagined”.

O’Connor Group Art Gallery

Exhibition runs until February 13, 2016
