Seeds (Featuring Eric Peterson of Corner Gas)

A powerful, brilliant piece of theatre that is both intellectual and emotional.

A dramatic and thought-provoking depiction of one Canadian farmer's battle with corporate greed, SEEDS documents the story of Percy Schmeiser, the Saskatchewan man that took on Monsanto in one of the most controversial legal cases in recent memory. Based on trial transcripts and interviews with farmers, academics, and scientists, SEEDS is a thrilling and stirring exploration of the facts and events that are at the centre of the debate about modern agriculture, GMO concerns, and the clashes between independent farmers and the biotech industry. Shedding light on the individuals at the heart of these issues, SEEDS merges crucial topics of our time with dramatic storytelling in an award-winning production that boldly and importantly confronts Schmeiser's question of 'who owns life?'

Chilliwack Art Gallery

Chilliwack Visual Artists Association presents

Nature Re-Imagined: Form and Place

Maggie Manning, Paul McCarl and Mary-Lee Merz re-imagine the natural world through sculpture, painting and printmaking.

For Maggie Manning, painting provides a vehicle to explore the movement, composition, balance and light in the living landscape; with each new investigation another secret is revealed. Perhaps, through the act of painting, it is the artist who is re-imagined” by receiving these gifts. Paul McCarl’s creative inspiration is directly related to his experience of the outdoors. Exploring the environment he finds boulders that excite his imagination. The inner heart of the stone is “re-imagined “ as Paul carves and sculpts the stone to reveal images of the West Coast Wildlife.

The observation of movement and patterns in nature informs the watercolours and print making of Mary-Lee Merz. Using this information she explores possibilities, which result in natural forms being “re-imagined”.

O’Connor Group Art Gallery

Exhibition runs until February 13, 2016

Gallery Hours: Wednesday – Saturday, 12:00-5:00pm
