Chilliwack Visual Artists Association presents

Transition

“Transition” is the theme chosen by the members of the CVAA for their first show of the 2016 season. It is a theme which is very appropriate for the changing of the seasons at this time of the year, with the hope of a not too distant spring raising everybody's spirits.

The word ‘Transition’ has many meanings in the dictionary., which artists can apply to their work, in whatever media: conversion, evolution, transformation, and alteration to name a few. How exciting a vista that opens up! We can use a change in our own circumstances: our country side with all the new growth springing up everywhere: changes in our own perception of what we see, or how we want to portray our own vision now: or something simple such as the change from day to night.

The possibilities are endless, so you can look forward to something different, something fresh and new
