Timber!

Incredible Aerial Artistry Meets Rustic Vintage Charm!

A pine-scented celebration of history, forestry, and Quebecois circus artistry, Timber! is an utterly spectacular and authentically Canadian show that will transform your view of lumberjacks forever! Inspired by the lives of rural settlers at the turn of the 19th century, Timber! combines the nouveau cirque style made famous by Cirque du Soleil with traditional Quebec folklore and music to produce a show steeped in rustic allure and brimming with energy. From high-flying seniors to axe-juggling lumberjacks, defying the laws of physics and putting you on the edge of your seat to the unmistakable jive of the folk sounds of the era, Timber! is a spectacular production, imagined and delivered with passion, adrenaline, and vintage charm!

Timber! is generously sponsored by: Unger Window & Door, Fortins Home Hardware, Gidney Signs & Decals, The Best Western Rainbow Country Inn, Chilliwack Times, City of Chilliwack, Department of Canadian Heritage, British Columbia Arts Council, Province of British Columbia.

Famous Artists presents

The Nylons – Farewell Tour

After over 35 years circling the globe, The Nylons have decided to finally close the touring chapter of their illustrious and legendary career as recording and performing artists. The group has embarked on a series of Farewell Shows to say goodbye to their dedicated fans who embraced and supported them over the years.

On April 10, 2016, The Nylons' Farewell Tour touches down in Chilliwack at the Chilliwack Cultural Centre for one final, great show! The Nylons are going through Canada and the USA through the end of 2016 and on to Holland in early 2017. Cities and venues are being carefully selected to reflect places that have always meant something to the group and where they can reach the most fans.

With a legacy of albums, international acclaim, and recorded hits that includes "The Lion Sleeps Tonight", "Silhouettes", "Up The Ladder to the Roof", and "Kiss Him Goodbye", The Nylons are, truly,

Canada's vocal group, a group that people fell in love to (and with) and that delivers a show that the entire family can enjoy.

Shantero Productions presents

John McDermott... Traditionally Yours

John McDermott is an international recording star and household name. Besides his stellar musical career — platinum, double-platinum, triple-platinum albums and multiple Juno nominations — he is also known for his commitment to veteran's causes, garnering several prestigious awards and commendations for his ongoing work including his foundation dedicated to aiding veterans and first responders, McDermott House, Canada.

In concert, whether sharing the stage with a top-notch group of musical friends or touring the world as part of the famed Three Irish Tenors, McDermott continues to enchant audiences with his beautiful voice and sensitive renditions. Though time and travel have introduced him to a wealth of new material and experiences, he manages to incorporate that diversity into his performances, while retaining the beguiling sense of humour that has endeared him to audiences from the beginning. This tour features songs from his latest release, Traditionally Yours, as well as variety of favourites from his vast recording catalogue.

A delectable evening of story and song, delivered with charm and grace by the consummate craftsman himself, John McDermott.

The Chilliwack Players' Guild presents

Gypsy

The Broadway musical Gypsy is “a musical fable” suggested by the memoirs of Gypsy Rose Lee. The fable starts with a vaudeville audition for Gypsy (Louise) and her sister June. Their mother Rose, comes on, tells everyone what to do, and then backs it up with a threatening hat-pin. Rose takes the girls on the vaudeville circuit, and under her guidance, they grow into young women on the road. But the end of vaudeville and the start of the great depression leaves Rose facing the end of their vaudeville career in a burlesque house. Louise reluctantly agrees to do a striptease as a last-ditch effort to remain on stage and becomes a burlesque star. The domineering Rose is left struggling to find her place in Louise’s shiny new life.
