Chilliwack Arts & Cultural Centre Society presents

Sarah Hagen and Rebecca Wenham

Prepare to be captivated with our Classical Music Series!

The lovely and talented Sarah Hagen returns as the host of this series of morning concerts, presenting classical compositions and fantastic musical guests in a series of duets over the course of the year. With complimentary freshly brewed coffee, tea, and sumptuous baked treats, there could be no better way to begin your weekend than with these spectacular concerts. In this opening installment of Sarah's four appearances at The Centre this season, she will be performing alongside Rebecca Wenham, a vibrant young cellist that has been described as 'a musical force of nature'. This concert will combine Sarah's virtuosic performance with the delicate notes of Rebecca's cello in an exemplary display of skillful artistry, stirring atmospheres, and the pure passion of classical music.

The Nude: Posed & Exposed – Figure Drawings by the Wednesday Life Drawing Group

Like other artists around the world, the Wednesday Evening Life Drawing Group at The Centre get together and draw the human body from life models. When the sessions ends they take these drawings home where they end up packed away in drawers, attics and basements. This exhibition aims to display these works, mounting a group of figure drawings that are the personal investigation of the undraped figure, showcasing the beautiful and intimate works created by artists who come to draw at The Centre.

Exhibition runs October 15 – November 21, 2015

Opening Reception: Saturday October 17, 2015 1:00-3:00pm
