The Chilliwack Arts & Cultural Centre Society presents

Bentall, Byrnes & Mann

Featuring BC's Barney Bentall, Jim Byrnes and John Mann, this show opens a window into the lives and talent of three of Canada's finest musicians. With over 25 albums, multiple Juno Awards, and countless tours between them, Bentall, Byrnes and Mann join forces to bring to the stage an engaging mix of their music - from folk to roots, blues-rock to pop. Bringing their own unique experiences to the stage, these musicians put on a show full of their stories. Known for their intimate, warm and entertaining performances, an evening with Bentall, Byrnes and Mann will make for a truly fine audience experience. With the musicians behind some of Canada's most well-known hits from the 80s, 90s, and 2000s, Bentall, Byrnes and Mann will be a night of nostalgia and West Coast spirit.

The Chilliwack Arts and Cultural Centre Society presents

Leave it to Cleavage

These ridiculously perky 50's housewives aim to install the virtues of the good ol' days through hilarious improvised scenes, using audience suggestions and volunteers. Hosted by the original Desperate Housewives, "Leave it to Cleavage's" delightful homemakers incorporate audience members, game show questions, and hilarious improv comedy. Want to know how to make your marriage last? Cook a roast? Keep your neighbour off your lawn? Build a swimming pool with your bare hands? There's no problem too big that Leave it to Cleavage can't solve with a perky attitude and matching satin party dresses. Leave it to Cleavage knows how hard it is to be a modern woman, and they know just how to make it better... with some good old fashioned improvised common sense... and a martini.

"The Really Real Housewives of Vancouver"

Adult material and situations – may not be appropriate for all audiences.
