The Chilliwack Symphony Orchestra and Chilliwack Opera Troupe presents

W.A. MOZART'S MAGIC FLUTE

Canada meets Austria meets the Sto:lo Nation in Chilliwack, for an English language production of W.A. Mozart's "The Magic Flute" to be presented at the Chilliwack Cultural Centre.

The Chilliwack Symphony, together with the Chilliwack Opera Troupe, has attracted internationally experienced singers from Vienna, Salzburg, Toronto and Victoria, and combined them with gifted singers from Chilliwack and Abbotsford, to perform this unique adaptation of the popular opera for small orchestra, inspired through the combined talents of Bernard Blary and Ron Hannah. Also featured in the upcoming production are specially designed masks, created by artists of the Sto:lo Nation.

"The Magic Flute" will be conducted by Paula De Wit, Musical Director of the CSO and COT and is directed by Andrea Mellis, a Chilliwack Senior Secondary graduate. Ms. Mellis, with 40 years of international experience as a singer, has also directed in theatres throughout Europe and Asia.

The Chilliwack Arts and Cultural Centre Society presents

2 for Tea

James and Jamesy are an interesting duo. One half quirky, innocent recluse, and the other humble, world-weary normality, these two young companions have formed a strong and peculiar friendship around that cornerstone of British eccentricity – tea. Their weekly tea parties provide an opportunity for these two friends to leave their ordinary world behind, and thanks to Jamesy’s wild imagination, to be propelled into shared adventures and unearth new discoveries. From conversing with the General of the British Army, an ill-fated family photo shoot, and a tea-house with a difference, the semi-improvised and totally hilarious 2 for Tea brings the audience into James and Jamesy’s unusual world – in many ways quite literally! Expect tea, merriment, and fantastic audience escapades with this tea party that you certainly won’t forget.

Bring a teacup.

The Harpoonist and the Axe Murderer

If their grisly nautical name doesn’t peak your curiosity, the funky blues jams of The Harpoonist and the Axe Murderer certainly will! This Vancouver-based duo are gaining a reputation for providing a unique listening experience, coupling groovy, blues-driven guitar playing with rugged harmonica and vocals to produce a modern take on a classic sound. With the eclectic programming of the Cultural Centre, The Harpoonist and the Axe-Murderer promises to add yet another element of diversity to our facility, and will be the perfect way to celebrate the four year anniversary of our very first presentation.
