CINDERELLA

With wit and humour for all ages, DuffleBag Theatre charms audiences with their original adaptations of fairy tales and classic stories. They create a magical experience by inviting up audience members to become the stars of the show, making an exciting, interactive, and unique experience for everyone, and this time is no different. Cinderella's life is storybook perfect. That is, until circumstances force her into a life of drudgery in the home of her wicked stepmother and stepsisters. But once handsome Prince Charming decides to hold a Royal Ball at the palace, things just might change for our heroine, with a little magical help from her Fairy Godmother. And a pumpkin... don't forget the pumpkin. Is Cinderella destined for a "happily ever after"? If the shoe fits... literally!

ANASTASIA

Celebrating the 100th anniversary of an incredibly magical story, Ballet Jörgen brings the tale of Grand Duchess Anastasia to the stage. Anastasia is both the tragic story of an innocent girl and the subject of modern mythology, as there is great speculation about what actually happened that fateful summer of 1918. The story that follows the daughter of the fallen Russian Tsar through the ballrooms of St. Petersburg, to the Russian Revolution, to captivity, and into the heart of the tragic mystery; is perfectly combined with fantastic choreography created by Artistic Director Bengt Jörgen, and an original full orchestra score by Russian/Canadian composer Ivan Barbotin. The ballet explores the emotions, aspirations, and affections of the lovable yet controversial Anastasia, as the world transforms around her, pulling the audience into her captivating story.
