WARREN MILLER'S LINE OF DESCENT

The traditions grow richer in Warren Miller's Line of Descent. Bigger, deeper, fresher than ever!

Prepare for an exhilarating evening when the lineage of mountain lifestyle continues in Warren Miller Entertainment's (WME) 68th full-length feature film, Line of Descent. This year's film, WME travels the globe, by land, air, and sea, exploring the ties that bind ski culture. In Squaw Valley and Jackson Hole, skiing icons who have made the mountains their home and raised mini Moes and Moseleys of their own. Travel to Norway, where a Canadian ski patroller enjoys the company of his Norwegian brethren, and in the French Alps, where native son Jean-Claude Killy's legacy fills Val-D'Isere hearts with pride. From the Mustang Lodge and Fernie British Columbia to France, Glacier Country to Steamboat, new generations of skiers and riders are pushing their sport to new extremes, making their parents proud-and often downright nervous. For 68 years, ski families have cheered the official kickoff of winter with the ski film company that started it all. It's a pure rush of adrenaline! And the prizes! With a range of winter sports equipment and a whole bunch of other goodies up for grabs, this will be a night to be inspired and to get outdoors!

The Chilliwack Players Guild presents

A FLEA IN HER EAR

FLEA in HER EAR is a hilarious farce that takes place in Paris during the early 1900s. The plot of the play revolves around mistaken identities, a seedy hotel, a plot to catch a cheating spouse, sexual innuendo, slamming doors - all resulting in an avalanche of comic chaos! FLEA in HER EAR has been staged hundreds of times by professional and community theatre companies all around the world. Feydeau is known for witty dialogue, fast paced action, outlandish characters, and rapid fire plot twists.
