Chilliwack Arts & Cultural Centre Society presents:

BALLET ROCKS

Ballet Rocks is an innovative, vibrant, athletic, entertaining, quirky, and beautiful program which first showcases three Canadian Choreographers: Jacques Lemay "Le Jazz Hot", a new work by Bruce Monk to the music of The Eagles, and a new work created for an eclectic selection of pop rock music. Then following the intermission Ballet Victoria delights audiences with a new narrative work based on Vivaldi's Four Seasons and the first nation mythology of the raven through these seasons. Each season opens with a poem written by Canadian poet Linda Rogers read by Chilliwack's very own Steven Point, past Lieutenant Governor of BC.

Chilliwack Art Gallery

Colouring Outside The Lines

Local Abstract Artist Vincent Mikuska has used hints and suggestions of landscape elements in his work to try and create an essence or experience of the landscape. There is a willingness to create associations between different elements of a visual experience. A world where line has poetic rhythm, colour a musical tone. Space can be hinted or defined. “ I try and find new patterns without concentrating on recreating the details of what I see” The effect is to be a cumulative effect of looking, not a single stare but what happens as you visually interact with your surroundings over a given time. Trying to get to the essence without the details.
