FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

A SASSY SLICE OF FUN FOR VALENTINE'S DAY WEEKEND: THE CHEESECAKE BURLESQUE REVUE RETURNS

Get ready for a wild ride of glamour, glitter, and giggles - The Cheesecake Burlesque Revue is back in town!

Head to the Chilliwack Cultural Centre on Friday, February 13 to get an eyeful of this vivacious and rollicking cast. These high-heeled and stand-out variety girls will have you blushing, guffawing, and singing along in their two-hour saucy cabaret extravaganza. It's funny, it's sexy, and it's a whole lot of natural woman - truly a performance like no other!

"It's a lot of dancing, singing numbers, little three-minute plays - and so much more!" says Kitten Kaboodle, Cheesecake veteran. "There are a lot of people who come away from the show after their first time in the audience, and they're surprised that it was so funny. But it's honestly just a lot of fun!"

These girls love nothing more than to bring sex appeal and hilarity together on one stage. They ham it up with dance routines, comedic skits, audience participation, and maybe even a touch of ukulele. From nerdy to sensual, curvy to cute, elegant to rock 'n' roll, there's a Cheesecake for everyone. And they all have one thing in common: together, they rock a spectacular stage show and leave the audience begging for more!

Over the last eight years, the Vancouver-based troupe has toured around the world to a variety of theatres and festivals - and picked up more than a few awards along the way!

“We’ve been travelling to some pretty exotic locations and some world-class festivals,” Kitten says. “It’s just neat to take in these experiences and then bring that back and put it in our shows.”

But from Paris to New Orleans, New York to Helsinki, there really is no place like home. In this return to the Fraser Valley, the Cheesecakes are ready to show off and celebrate Valentine’s Day weekend with a little spice, a lot of nice, and more than a little naughty - so buckle up for a host of song, dance, and comedy - and a dash of tasteful striptease!

And the Cheesecakes aren’t the only ones making noise - they love nothing more than a hoot and a holler from the crowd.

“We want the audience to be as interactive as possible,” Kitten says. “They can yell, they can whistle - we love a loud audience. We’re looking for people out there to have fun, and it’s all about becoming part of the experience!”

Just in time for Valentine’s day weekend, The Cheesecake Burlesque Revue has prepared a whole new themed line-up for the most romantic day of the year; think shiny hearts, crimson costumes, romantic lighting, flashy dance moves and a whole lot of love songs.

“Love is always a big part of the show, but romance will definitely be a theme of the day,” Kitten says with a wink. “We’ve been to Chilliwack before and we always have a great time, but this might just be our best show yet - and we’re excited to show off!”

And while the show is definitely cheeky, sassy, and more than a little sensual, it’s about so much more than a sexy cabaret.

“It’s funny - we didn’t get into burlesque to make other people feel better about their bodies, but that’s certainly been one of the great by-products of the show,” Kitten says. “All of the cheesecakes are 100% girl next door - the sort of women you’d see in the grocery store. We get up there and shake what we have, and it’s neat that we inspire a lot of women to feel better about themselves. We try to show that everybody’s body is beautiful, and it’s lovely to have confidence in your own body and sexuality.”

“It’s a show you can take your Grandma to because it’s never raunchy or dirty, but it is sexy and funny,” Kitten concludes. “We’re looking for people out there to have fun, and that’s the main part of our show. It’s all about having a good time!”

You can catch these stilettoed and hilarious girls at the HUB International Theatre on Friday, February 13 at 7:30pm.
