FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Camilo is Back to Amaze with a Brand New Show!

CHILLIWACK, BC – Something Supernatural is coming to The Chilliwack Cultural Centre! The incredible Camilo the Magician will take the stage for three top-notch shows on October 15, 16 and 22, 2016 at 7:30pm with his latest spectacle Supernatural. With his sleek slight-of-hand style, Camillo will amaze audiences and leave them wondering “just how did he do it?!”, making this magic show a must see!

Originally from Bogota, Columbia, Camillo has been performing magic since the age of just four years old. Moving to Canada when he was 15, he pursued his career in magic performance and acting. He went on to complete the Production Program at Langara's Studio 58, as well as the Theatre History Exchange in London and has also taken classes at the New York Conservatory for the Dramatic Arts. Camilo has had sold out shows across Canada, and even has a song written about him by Vancouver based band "Said the Whale" called "Camillo (the magician)", that was inspired when the band members had met him at a party and he blew them away with his talent. He also has wowed audiences in Chilliwack previously at The Centre when he joined alongside Shawn Farquhar in Cabaret of Wonders IV. If you did not get the chance to see his performance last year, now is your chance!

Camilo the Magician's remarkable sense of humour, incomparable stage magic and original illusions creates a night of laughter and entertainment and a show that will have you believing in magic!

Supernatural is generously sponsored by: Fraser Valley Custom Printers, Gidney Sign, Kyle Hyslop, The Chilliwack Times, Canadian Heritage, British Columbia Arts Council, Province of British Columbia, and the City of Chilliwack.
