FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Get your adrenaline pumping with Here, There & Everywhere.

CHILLIWACK, BC – Adventure, action, and excitement, Here, There & Everywhere has it all, and on December 2 you can experience it for yourself at the Chilliwack Cultural Centre! Here, There & Everywhere takes viewers on snow-sport filmmakers Warren Miller Entertainment's latest journey through the quaint ski town of Crested Butte, Colorado, to the frigid cold of the Rocky Mountains in Western Montana's Glacier Country, and even to B.C.'s own Kicking Horse. This film adventure even includes a dog sled trip through Eastern Greenland, a ride along Switzerland's Glacier

Express train, and a variety of talented professional snow-sport athletes including Ingrid Backstrom, Wendy Fisher, Seth Wescott, Rob Kingwill, and many more.

It's been 67 years since Warren Miller made his first full-length feature film, and he's been on a hot streak ever since. A pioneer of the ski film industry, Warren Miller Entertainment has produced 67 films – one each year – and travelled the globe with their crew to capture the world's winter beauty. Miller got his start in the filmmaking industry in 1949 while working as a ski instructor in Idaho. After filming himself and fellow skiers to improve their techniques, Miller decided to make a career out of his hobby. It was then that he founded Warren Miller Entertainment and began producing his own films.

Here, There & Everywhere is the latest effort to really bring viewers here, there, and everywhere. Some may recognize the well known winter sport locations that are included, like the majestic Rocky Mountains of Colorado, Montana, and B.C., while other locations, like the enchanting tundra of Alaska and Greenland, will leave the audience inspired to discover the Great North and experience their own winter adventure.

Whether you're ready to embark on your own snowy voyage and ski the world's best mountain ranges or not, Here, There & Everywhere will leave you with the rush of adrenaline that comes with winter sports, an appreciation for the beauty that winter brings, and, most of all, a desire to get out explore.

Getting out and exploring will be even easier with the avalanche of door prizes audience members will have a chance to win just by attending! From adventure gear and equipment from local businesses, to lift passes, the adventure doesn't have to stop when the film does.

Here, There & Everywhere is showing at The Chilliwack Cultural Centre's HUB International Theatre on Friday, December 2 at 7:30pm. Tickets are $20 and are now available at The Centre Box Office, so visit www.chilliwackculturalcentre.ca or call 604-391-SHOW(7469) to secure your ticket today!
