FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

A Cosmic Adventure with the Wonderheads takes kids to *The Middle of Everywhere!

CHILLIWACK, BC— Your kids will be captivated when the wonderful and whimsical Wonderheads take them on an brilliant adventure to The Middle of Everywhere at the Chilliwack Cultural Centre on March 13, 2016! Brimming with innovative, imaginative storytelling and a dream-like atmosphere of magic and excitement, The Middle of Everywhere will be a fantastic journey to the stars and back.

Created by the Wonderheads - the performers behind the poignant, touching, and fun Loon and Grim and Fischer - The Middle of Everywhere once again sees this quirky company tell a tall tale through the medium of wordless, physical theatre. With their signature oversized and super-expressive masks, the Wonderheads don't need dialogue to pull the audience into their stories - these fantastic artists do it all with evocative expression and an animated style of physical performance.

The kids will be in awe as the Wonderheads take to the stage, conjuring the most cosmic and captivating of stories before their eyes. This show follows the adventures of two companions brought together by a curious twist of fate, who go on a thrilling and fun-filled quest through the universe. Penny - a whimsical girl who decides to run away from home, and Winston - a particular man with a peculiar set of particularities, are brought together at a bus stop, and then whisked away on a series of unbelievable escapades. Time and space become Penny and Winston's cosmic playground, and as they journey on a fun-filled, evocative, and touching adventure, the duo unearth many mystical and mysterious wonders of life... and try to find their place in the universe along the way.

“Whether you’re a parent with a school-aged child, or just a grown-up who needs reminding that the universe is awesome, you’ll be delighted by The Middle of Everywhere.”

- Winnipeg Free Press
