THE STAMPEDERS ~ IN CONCERT...
CELEBRATING 50 YEARS!

'They're on their way, to the city lights' ... and, THE predominant Canadian Rock 'n' Roll band of the 1970s – The Stampeders – are bringing along all their classic hits: Wild Eyes, Carry Me, Oh My Lady, Devil You, Monday Morning Choo Choo, Minstrel Gypsy, Hit the Road Jack and, of course, the quintessential Canadian – and Hall of Fame – song, Sweet City Woman! A veritable soundtrack to a whole generation that will 'carry you home' ... maybe not to Birmingham ... but back to a time of tie-dyed t-shirts and elevator shoes, 15¢ coffee and homemade apple pie, dating and dreaming ... By the time The Stampeders get to the first chorus of the first song, everyone will be singing along.

Chilliwack Visual Artists Association presents

Visions and Perspectives

Artists Christine Newsome, Betty Meiszner, Dianne Hultgen, and Vicki Ray will be exhibiting their current work at the O'Connor Group Gallery in the Chilliwack Cultural Centre from May 18 to June 25, 2022. The four women were brought together by Christine Newsome's mixed media collage classes at Eldercollege. They were founding members of the Chilliwack Collage Collective and have continued to meet regularly to encourage and motivate each other. Christine Newsome continues to work with mixed media collage. She takes her inspiration from history and anthropology, layering colour, texture and image instinctively to create mystery and meaning.

Vicki Ray's medium is also mixed media collage. She enjoys composition and simplicity, often with a dash of humour.

Betty Meiszner's encaustics and mixed media pieces are informed by her childhood growing up in Chilliwack on the family farm....and by her passion for travel.

Diane Hultgren's representational landscapes and still-lives are drawn from her love of nature and sun-filled days growing up in the B.C.'s Okanagan.

Chilliwack Visual Artists Association presents

Visions and Perspectives

Hussein Rostum's exhibition is a joyous celebration of colour. His unique creations range from exuberant explorations that excite the imagination to profound pieces that calm the soul. His paintings use vivid, compelling colour combinations to tell evocative stories. This July, Hussein's show will brighten the O'Connor Group Art Gallery walls.

"My goal as an artist is to create aesthetic expressions of colour on canvas that appeal, engage, and inspire. I hope my paintings can encourage people to make art and beauty an ongoing presence in their own lives, as it is in mine."

Hussein was fortunate to have grown up in an art-loving family. His father was a well-known architect and artist, schooled at the École des Beaux-Arts in Paris. Hussein and his siblings spent many happy childhood hours refining their artistic talents as they studied under their father's careful tutelage. Indeed, practicing techniques in dad's studio was a favourite pastime for the whole family.

As a proud Chilliwack resident with an international background, Hussein draws artistic inspiration partly from our beautiful surroundings, and partly from his travels. After growing up in Egypt, Hussein moved to Ottawa and established several successful businesses. These allowed him to travel extensively, developing an admiration for the many unique styles of art around the world.

His recent paintings explore impressionistic abstract motifs while retaining a grounding sense of balance and structure. His exhibition this summer at the O'Connor Group Art Gallery conjures the freedom and joy of his continuing journey in art.
