COLIN JAMES BLUES TRIO

With his 19th album, "Miles to Go" (2019), COLIN JAMES is getting back to the blues. Wait a minute, you ask, hasn't Colin James always played the blues? Yes, but back when signed to his first record deal, his producer explicitly told him not to play any blues, because the label expected a pop hit. "National Steel" (1997), was James' first full-on blues album. It landed him on folk festival bills alongside the likes of John Prine and John Hiatt.
