

WINGS, SYMBOLS & MYTHS

Exhibit on from November 2 to December 10 2022

Variations on winged creatures occur in many cultures and are among the most used mythological images used by artists worldwide. In this exhibit, the artists of the Chilliwack Visual Artist's Association present their interpretations of this intriguing, multi-faceted theme.

Man has always looked to symbols to represent an object, a function, or a process. Symbols created by the ancients often cloaked in mystery and the supernatural, walked hand in hand with cultural myths handed down from generation to generation.

FRONT & CENTRE

Combining explosive energy and technical precision, Move the Company stuns with Proximity!

Vancouver's own award-winning Joshua Beamish brings his innovative choreographic vision to the Chilliwack Cultural Centre on December 2, with a collection of thrilling contemporary dance pieces. Take flight through the world of dance with Proximity, the result of a year long journey to create an ambitious program that will captivate and inspire you.

Beamish has achieved worldwide success as a prolific choreographer and as an exceptional performer, and Proximity offers the chance to see both aspects of his work. Taking the experience of the COVID shutdown and turning it into an experience that differed radically for most people, Proximity displays how Beamish used it to bring upon a positive change.

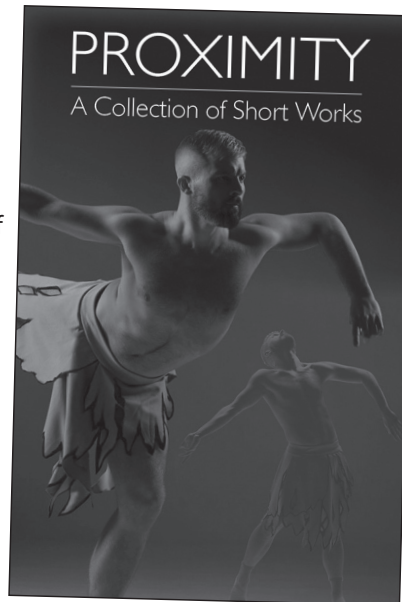

This program features two of Beamish's own creations, a solo called Lost Touch performed by Renee Sigouin of Kidd Pivot, and Proximity performed by both Sigouin and Beamish. As well, the program will include an additional two solos, one choreographed by Ballet BC's Kirsten Wicklund, and another by acclaimed international choreographer Annabelle Lopez Oschoa, both of which will be solos that Beamish performs himself. Each piece is tied to the other in their use of light, sound, movement and videography.

Each performance within Proximity holds a piece of Beamish in it, while also connecting with the other artists. It is a triumph in creating an exceptional program that thrives on the beauty of human connections, and how creating together can uplift us.

Proximity: A Collection of Short Works is coming to the Chilliwack Cultural Centre on December 2, 2022 at 7:30 pm. Tickets are $29, and can be purchased at the Centre Box Office, online at www.chilliwackculturalcentre.ca, or by calling 604-391-SHOW(7469).

The Outsider

In the midst of a political scandal, Ned Newley, the ultimate policy wonk, is unexpectedly thrust into the position of Governor. Ned Newley doesn't even want to be Governor. He has no political instincts, a paralyzing fear of public speaking, and his poll numbers are impressively bad. Ned might be the worst candidate to ever run for office. Unless the public is looking for... the worst candidate ever to run for office. Politics is a visual medium. People vote for idiots who look like leaders. But Ned Newley is a new phenomenon: a leader... who looks like an idiot. In politics, the less you know, the higher you'll go! At once a razor-sharp comedy and a sincere tribute to democracy, The Outsider is a timely and hilarious take on modern politics.
