FRONT & CENTRE

Chilliwack Arts & Cultural Centre Society presents

The East and West weave together through the melodically alluring sounds of the santur and percussions!

The evocative sound of the santur, an ancient instrument performed in a contemporary style, blends naturally with the earthy sound of percussions, creating a seamless musical journey on January 26 at the Chilliwack Cultural Centre! Farhad Khosravi & Daniel Stadnicki come together to celebrates Persian folk music in an evening that is not to be missed!

The santur, a hammered dulcimer string instrument, dates back as far as the Babylonian stone carvings and is played to perfection by Iranian-born Farhad Khosravi. Joining Khosravi, is Daniel Stadnicki, an Asian-Canadian percussionist, who uses kick drums, tambourines, bells, shakers, cymbals and the tombak drum to create unique sounds. The duo's hybrid of Persian and Western music brings together rapid tempos, and dense ornamentations with a melodic pattern, making music that sounds exotic, romantic and haunting.

Before the show, special guest Ghazaleh Nozamani will be speaking about her journey moving from Iran to Chilliwack, including facts, sorrows, solutions and hope for the Iranian community. Ghazaleh's passion for bringing change to the next generation and supporting one another is vibrant and inspiring. This pre-show event will begin at 6:30 pm.

Support The Centre

We are so excited about the fantastic success the Chilliwack Cultural Centre has achieved in our first nine and a half years! Since opening, we have focused on three main areas of development: providing world class entertainment at accessible ticket prices; maintaining the highest standards of arts and crafts programs at prices families can afford; and ensuring the Chilliwack Cultural Centre remains the pride of Chilliwack.

In order to achieve these goals the Chilliwack Arts & Cultural Centre Society must raise over one million dollars through earned revenue, arts grants, sponsorships, and donations each year. Consider making a fully tax deductible donation to help us ensure that Chilliwack has access to the very best arts experiences.

Naming Opportunities

Naming of the Cultural Centre's spaces will gain your business or organization an enormous amount of public exposure every time an event is held at this world-class facility.

88 Key Club

A vision for a new, world-class facility began over a decade ago and it was spurred on by a committee commissioned by Chilliwack's City Council.
